How to find information in JOGU-StiNe, the electronic course listings at Johannes Gutenberg-University Mainz go to: http://jogustine.uni-mainz.de/

Select ‘Vorlesungen’ to access the course list.

You do not need to log in to access the course listings, but a log-in is necessary to register for courses. This log-in is only available after matriculation at our university.
Select the appropriate semester in the upper left-hand margin. If the semester you wish to apply for is not yet listed, choose the appropriate semester of the previous year.
Now you can select the appropriate field of studies:

01 - Catholic and Protestant Theology
02 - Social Sciences, Media Sciences, and Physical Education
03 - Law and Economics
04 - Medicine
05 - Philosophy, Modern Philologies, Theater Studies, Book Science
06 - Translation & Interpretation (Germersheim campus)
07 - History and Cultural Studies
08 - Physics, Math, and Computer Sciences
09 - Chemistry, Pharmaceutics, and Geology
10 - Biology
11 - Music and Applied Arts
Types of Classes:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Vortrag</td>
<td>Lecture course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proseminar</td>
<td>Undergraduate seminar</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(Haupt-) Seminar</td>
<td>Intermediate-level seminar</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Übung</td>
<td>Course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Praktikum</td>
<td>Practical or laboratory course</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oberseminar/Kolloquium</td>
<td>Advanced graduate course</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Lecture courses serve to provide overviews over a subject matter in support of more detailed topics of regular classes.
- Proseminars are classes with introductory character. Regular attendance is mandatory.
- Seminars are more advanced classes which require certain prerequisites.
- Übungen are practically oriented classes.
- Interships are complementary courses to theoretical classes. In the natural sciences, they are laboratory courses.
- Oberseminars are classes for advanced graduate students who are preparing for their master's thesis.

Please note that this is a selective list of course types which are most applicable to exchange students. If you have further questions, please don’t hesitate to ask!